

Postgraduate Program
Political Science and History
Panteion University of Social and Political Science

Postgraduate Program - Political Science and Sociology
University of Athens

C O N F E R E N C E

Questioning Citizenship: Political Discourse, Norms and History in Comparative Perspectives

15-16 October 2010

Goethe-Institute Athen
Omirou 14-16, Athens

Languages of the conference: EN-GR with simultaneous translation

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 15th 2010

16:00

Introductory remarks

Dimitris Christopoulos, Panteion University
Gerasimos Kouzelis, University of Athens

1st Session:

16.15 – 18.30

Individuality and communalism within modern citizenship

Chair: Prof. Grigoris Ananiadis (Panteion University)

Citizenship in America and France during the 19th century: Tocquville's view

Prof. Stavros Konstantakopoulos (Panteion University)

Between 'millet' and communalism: An "imperial" answer to the citizenship's problem, 19th-20th c.

Prof. Sia Anagnostopoulou (Panteion University)

Aspects of legal communitarianism: between Millet and citizenship

Prof. Konstantinos Tsitselikis (University of Macedonia, Thessaloniki)

Discussion

Coffee break

18:30-19:00

2nd Session:

19:00 – 20:45

Citizenship and ethnicity in a comparative context (Part I)

Chair: Prof. Stefanos Pasmazoglou (Panteion University)

Citizenship rights to expatriates: the Greek and German experience

Dr. Mihalis Tsapogas (Office of the Greek Ombudsman)

Citizenship in a Post-ottoman context: the Greek, Turkish and Bulgarian case in a comparative perspective.

Dr Lambros Baltiotis (Panteion University)

Citizenship between de- and re-nationalization.

Prof. Christian Joppke (American University of Paris)

Discussion

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 16th 2010

10:00 – 11:45

1st Session:

Citizenship and ethnicity in a comparative context (Part II)

Chair: Prof. Lina Ventura (University of Peloponnese)

Citizenship loss in a European comparative perspective: how emigration affects nationality status

Prof. Maarten Vink (Maastricht University)

“The citizen is the state within the individual”. Portions of ethnicity and civility within (Greek) citizenship

Prof. Dimitris Christopoulos (Panteion University)

Multiple Belonging-Multiple Citizenship: Does loyalty matter?

Dr. Rainer Ohliger (Network migration in Europe, Berlin)

Discussion

Coffee break

11:45-12:15

12:15 – 14:00

2nd Session:

Citizenship and migration integration in Europe

Chair: Prof. Nikos Alivizatos (University of Athens)

European citizenship: what may migrants expect from a regime of imperfect sovereignty

Dr. Christos Papastylanos (Office of the Greek Ombudsman)

Citizenship in a post-colonial context: comparing the Dutch and the Portuguese case

Prof. Patricia Jeronimo (University of Minho, Portugal)

Integration requirements and tests in Europe: a comparative perspective

Prof. Sara Wallace Goodman (University of California - Irvine)

Implementing the Greek nationality reform

Prof. Andreas Takis (Secretary General for Migration Policy)

Discussion

Buffet Lunch

14:00-15:30

15:30 – 17:15

3rd Session:

Citizenship, rights, claims and expectations (Part I)

Chair: Prof. Kalliopi Spanou, (University of Athens, Greek Deputy Ombudsman)

Gender claims and democracy

Prof.,. Maro Pantelidou-Malouta (University of Athens)

Politics “for life” and re-definition of citizenship

Prof. Dimitra Makryniotis (University of Athens)

Citizenship and the mass media

Prof. Kyrkos Doxiades (University of Athens)

Discussion

Coffee break

17:15-17:45

4th Session:

17:45- 19:30

Citizenship, rights, claims and expectations (Part II)

Chair: Prof. Antonis Manidakis (Aristotelion University of Thessaloniki)

Remains of citizenship: Ethics, politics and biopolitics of exception and precarity

Prof. Athena Athanasiou (Panteion University)

Citizenship as pluriform exclusion. National experiences

Prof. Dimitri Dimoulis (Law Faculty Fundação Getúlio Vargas, São Paulo, Brazil)

Prof. Soraya Lunardi (Law Faculty, Instituição Toledo de Ensino, Bauru, São Paulo, Brazil)

The citizen as a subject: rights’ or chances claim?

Prof. Gerasimos Kouzelis (University of Athens)

Discussion

Concluding remarks – end of works